History, Arts, and Dining

Happy October!

Carbondale boasts a rich history of craftsmanship that is alive and well. New shops, galleries, businesses, and restaurants reside where 100 years ago you would find newspaper offices, a blacksmith, hotels, a post office, and a train depot. Stroll past historic brick buildings and wooden structures that have served our bustling community since 1881. Stop by the Carbondale Chamber or the Mt. Sopris Historical Society to pick up a Carbondale Walking Tour map.

While touring historic Carbondale, visit the many art galleries and theatres. Uncover the spirit of the valley in photography, painting, sculpture, glass, ceramics, jewelry, woodworking, blacksmithing and the performing arts. After visiting the galleries, take in Carbondale's ever-expanding fine dining establishments. Carbondale boasts a refreshing atmosphere that enhances your dining experience.

Upcoming event: First Friday, November 6, 2009. Experience gallery openings, business open houses, and other events in historic downtown on the first Friday of each month from 6pm to 8pm. Located in Downtown Carbondale.
