Snow is in the Air!

Happy November!

Carbondale has so many great places to explore this winter! There are hundreds of trails for cross-country skiing, snowmobiling, and snowshoeing. You'll find the Spring Gulch Nordic Trail System just 7 miles west of Carbondale. Cross-country ski its 12 miles of groomed trails, and remember, no dogs allowed. Stop by the Carbondale Chamber to pick up your copy of the Spring Gulch Trail System map.

Interested in going ice skating? The Carbondale Recreation & Community Center offers a public rink for ice skating and hockey games. Click here for more ice skating information.

For downhill skiing, Carbondale is the perfect base camp. Aspen and its four famous mountains are only 30 minutes away. Steeps, bumps, and smiles can be found only 12 miles west of town at Sunlight Mountain Resort. Snowmobiling, cross-country skiing, and snowshoeing trails can also be found at this laidback, friendly resort.

The Carbondale area offers a variety of lodging options including: rustic lodges and cabins, a historical landmark inn, quaint bed & breakfasts, and more traditional hotels with modern-day amenities. Click here to view our lodging options.
