Welcome to Base Camp

Happy April!

The picturesque town of Carbondale is the heart of Colorado's Rocky Mountains. Carbondale offers a variety of comfortable lodging options, casual and exquisite fine dining, creative arts and entertainment, and intriguing historical areas.

The first step of any great adventure is establishing a base camp. Somewhere relaxed and welcoming that's just a hop, skip, and a jump from your mountain getaway.

With world-class skiing, Gold Medal fly fishing, hiking, biking, and golf just around the corner, Carbondale is the perfect base camp for all of your Colorado adventures, whatever your passion, whatever the season.

Explore more, travel less, and come home to Carbondale. Come home to fine dining, friendly faces, and culture with a distinct Carbondale character.

Upcoming Carbondale Events:

- Visit us May 7-9 for the second annual 5Point Film Festival. Through film, panel discussions, fun and conversation, this event will foster the bonds between generations of committed outdoor enthusiasts and provide a venue for filmmakers from around the world to showcase their work. This event will be held at the Carbondale Community Center, 567 Colorado Avenue. Visit www.5pointfilm.org for more information.
- Dandelion Day and flea market will be held on May 9. Parade down Historic Downtown Main Street with local residents and business owners dressed as the Town Flower. Flea market, food, dandelion wine and "dandy" salads are on the menu. Located in Sopris Park, at the corner of 7th Street and Main Street.
- La Dolce Vita, formally Cajun Clay Night, is very popular, with people lining up at the door, this Carbondale Clay Center annual event has great Cajun food, a costume contest, drinks, live music, and local pottery. Located at 135 Main Street in Carbondale. Call the Clay Center at (970) 963-2529 for more information.
